Submitted to His Highness.

With reference to para 9 of Mr. Campbell's D.O. letter of 2nd instant, I submit for His Highness' orders the case of Col. R.G. Jones whose present term of engagement expires on the 25th March 1910. The understanding with the Residency in 1905 was that it will be open to Col. Jones to ask for a further extension of three years subject to his continuing fit for further service.

2. On his recall from leave in August 1909, Col. Jones was appointed to the Personal Staff of His Highness as Military Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja.

My dear Sir,

His Highness desires me to return the enclosed file. Col. Jones is physically fit and does not wish to retire. His Highness thinks that no formal application for an extension of his services is necessary, unless the Residency should raise the question.

Yours sincerely,

T. Ananda Row Esq., B.A.,
